13 An initial hearing on a petition for violation of supervised release was held before the 14 undersigned Magistrate Judge on November 17, 2009. The United States was represented by 15 Assistant United States Attorney Susan Loitz, and the defendant by Jay Stansell.

16 The defendant had been charged and convicted of False Statement, in violation of 18
17 U.S.C. § 1001. On or about January 10, 2008 defendant was sentenced by the Honorable
18 Robert S. Lasnik, to a term of five (5) months in custody, to be followed by three (3) years of 19 supervised release.

20 On or about June 12, 2008, defendant's supervised released was revoked for failing to 21 serve the 150-day term of his placement in a residential reentry center as ordered by his 22 special conditions. Defendant was sentenced to twenty-four (24) days in custody with credit
23 for time served, to be followed by thirty-five (35) months of supervised released.

24 The conditions of supervised release included the requirements that the defendant
25 comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and with the standard conditions. Special 26 conditions imposed included, but were not limited to, participation in substance abuse and

01 mental health programs, financial disclosure, $12,885.84 restitution, $100 SPA, and search
02 and seizure.

03 In a Petition for Warrant or Summons, dated June 22, 2009, U.S. Probation Officer
04 Mark K. Okano asserted the following violations by defendant of the conditions of his
05 supervised release:

06 (1) Using cocaine on or about April 29, 2009, in violation of standard condition
07 #7.

08 (2) Failing to report for in-patient drug treatment as directed by the U.S. Probation
09 Officer on May 27, 2009.

10 (3) Using cocaine on or about June 4, 2009, in violation of standard condition #7.

11 The defendant was advised of his rights, acknowledged those rights, and admitted to 12 the alleged violations 1 and 3. Defendant further admitted to violation 2 as modified:

13 (2) Failing to report for an intake in-patient drug treatment as directed by the U.S.
14 Probation Officer on May 27, 2009.

15 I therefore recommend that the Court find the defendant to have violated the terms
16 and conditions of his supervised release as to violations numbers 1, 2 and 3, and that the 17 Court conduct a hearing limited to disposition. A disposition hearing on this violation has 18 been set before the Honorable Robert S. Lasnik on February 10, 2010 at 8:30 a.m.

19 Pending a final determination by the Court, the defendant has been released, subject
20 to supervision.

21 DATED this 17th day of November, 2009.
